

President Acts To Relieve Farmers Senators Demand Cancellation Of Teapot Dome Lease

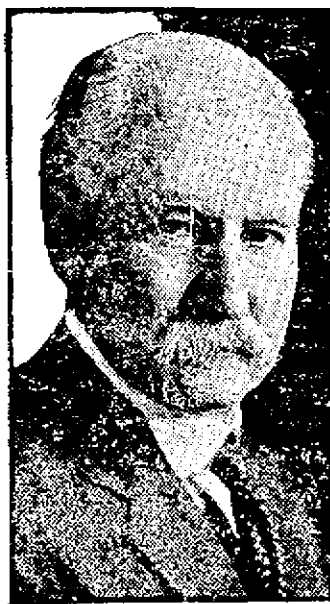

CONGRESS URGED TO ASSIST THE FARMER

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The steps for the relief of the agriculture situation in the northwestern states to be taken by congress, some by the executive branch of the government, and some by private interests were outlined by President Coolidge today in a special message to congress.

The steps include:
The refunding of the pressing past due to indebtedness of the farmer in the territories most seriously affected.
Financial assistance through a Federal agency to enable wheat farmers to make the change from a single crop system to diversified farming.
The restoration, wherever it would be helpful, of the impaired capital of farming institutions in the distressed sections.
The creation by private capital of a substantial financing corporation to assist in the plan of re-organization.
The extension of the time during which the War Finance Corporation may make loans.

FALL AND DAUGHERTY SCORED IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Notice was given today in the senate by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, that he will ask the Teapot Dome investigating committee to report a resolution advising the president to institute proceedings for the annulment of the lease of the Wyoming oil reserve to the Sinclair interests.

The senator added that he also would ask that the resolution provide for special counsel to prosecute the case, independent of the Department of Justice, because of a widespread "suspicion throughout the country against the attorney general."

Senator Walsh said that whether this "suspicion" was a misfortune or a fault of the attorney general, he was not prepared to say. He added that there long had been friendship between Mr. Daugherty and Albert B. Fall, former Secretary of the Interior; that they had been cabinet members together and that he believed the attorney general would be glad to be relieved of the matter.

Three Killed In Boiler Blast

PITTSBURGH, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The boiler of an Erie Railroad engine, hauling the morning express from Pittsburgh to Cleveland over the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad, exploded at Allegheny, Pa., 23 miles west of here this morning while the train was running 40 miles an hour. Engineer George Clark, Fireman L. L. Kuechler and J. R. Meade, road foreman of engineers, were killed.

Row Over The League

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A row over the League of Nations broke today at the hearing of the senate propaganda committee as Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, one of the league irreconcilables, sought to develop the attitude on this question of the members of the policy committee and jury of award in the 1923 world peace movement.

Compromise Tax Offer

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Republican members of the House Ways and Means committee offered today to compromise with the Democrats on the Mellon tax bill and to frame a non-partisan measure.

Representative Garner, Texas, ranking Democrat on the Committee, to whom the offer was made by Chairman Cullen, did not definitely commit minority members to a compromise.

PEASANTS HATE COMMUNISM BUT HAD CONFIDENCE IN LENINE

MOSCOW, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The body of Niko the Crimean lay last night in the villa at Gorky, where the great bolshevik premier, stricken with a fatal illness, died most the last year of his life. Early this morning, a group of Communist party leaders and members of the all-Russian soviet congress, boarded a train for the little village. They were to turn there late this afternoon at the official resort of their chief's estate.

Only Lenin's widow, his mother and some of his most intimate associates in the Communist party kept the death watch in the Gorky villa throughout the night. As this little group awaited the coming of the escort, there were pouring into Moscow a flood of cablegrams that showed that the world mourned the death chiefain deeply.

Creasy Freed On Murder Charge

MINNEOLA, N. Y., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—William M. Creasy, of Port Thomas, Ky., early today was acquitted by a jury of murdering Miss Edith Taylor, a Pleasant school teacher, in June, 1922, in her boarding house after their engagement to marry had been broken. Convicted at the first trial in October, 1922, Creasy won an appeal after nine months in the death house at Sing Sing.

At five minutes after four the jury, deliberating for almost eight hours, filed into the court room and announced that they had reached a verdict. Creasy, visibly nervous, was brought into the room a minute before Justice Callaghan ascended the bench. As the verdict of "not guilty" was announced, he almost collapsed.

As the echo of the foreman's coiled died from the silent room, Mrs. Mildred Sheldon, school teacher, who had been a room mate of Edith Taylor, and who testified against Creasy as one of the chief witnesses for the prosecution, sprang from her seat and flung herself at the bewildered Creasy. She placed a resounding kiss on his cheek.

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—An offer by the Union Carbide Company of New York, to manufacture fertilizer at the Muscle Shoals plant was transmitted to congress today by Secretary Weeks.

"DANCING SPOOK" FRIGHTENS GOOD FOLK OF NEW LEXINGTON

NEW LEXINGTON, O., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—It is still at large and is still engaging in his weird nightly antics which have frightened the countryside nearly out of their wits.

The "spook" parades himself around in a white robe and takes solitary participation in frenzied dances on neighboring hills.

Police cannot seem to dope the "ghost" out and so far have been unable to apprehend it.

Residents near here report frequently of seeing the "spook" and of noticing flashing lights from the hillside, probably caused by a torch it held above its head.

Recently two officers went to investigate the activities of the strange being. They came upon the "ghost" doing tormented turns. They stood a moment, open-mouthed, unable to move. Before they could decide whether to run or shoot at the figure, the "dancing spook" advanced toward them. Feet and highway got together and soon had delivered the officers to a place of safety at a safe distance from the "ghost's playground."

Bok Has Started Something That May Ultimately Become An Issue In Presidential Campaign

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1924)

WASHINGTON, January 23.—Edward Bok has started something which may ultimately become an issue in the Presidential campaign. He has challenged the opponents of the League of Nations plan to make an alternate proposal that will "achieve and preserve" a nationwide referendum to determine which program the American people approve or disapprove.

Mr. Bok in his parting shot to the Senate committee appointed to investigate his first peace award has placed the responsibility for the next move on the so-called "irreconcilable" group. For several years they have been attacking the covenant of the League of Nations but without giving any constructive suggestion as to a substitute. In the 1920 campaign, the Republicans declared for "an association of nations" but no plan for such an international organization has come from the administration. William Gibbs McAdoo, aspirant for the Democratic Presidential nomination has endorsed Mr. Bok's first appeal and no doubt will endeavor to rally to his side the people who by their ballots are today endorsing the plan for the League of Nations with suitable reservations safeguarding the sovereignty and independence of the United States.

Will G. O. P. Follow Irreconcilables
Will the Republican party follow the "irreconcilables" who want no world organization or will it follow men like Edith Bok who have declared for a League of Nations?

Course In Agriculture By Radio Planned

MANHATTAN, KAN., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Establishment of night courses in agriculture to be broadcast by radio, is announced by the Kansas State Agricultural College here.

The courses will begin February 11 and will be broadcast on a wave of 280 meters.

Persons in all parts of the state are invited to listen in on the air lessons and at the end of the semester written examinations on the subject matter sent out will be given.

Those who pass the examinations will be entitled to certificates of graduation in the aerial school.

"School" will begin at 7 o'clock each evening and the lectures will be by college instructors.

ALLIANCE OWES THE STATE

ALLIANCE, O., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—State audit of Alliance Municipal Court shows this city owes the state $25,775.02, as a result of liquor fines collected under the Cramble act since July 22, 1921. Previous audit shows an additional $7,250 charged against this city under the same law.

U. S. And Britain Sign Rum Treaty

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The new rum treaty with Great Britain was signed today at the State Department.

Secretary Hughes for the United States, and Sir Auckland Geddes, the retiring British ambassador, affixed their signatures to the agreement which provides for extension of the American right of search beyond the three mile limit and permits British vessels to bring ships' stores into American ports under seal.

Senate ratification is required before the new arrangement becomes effective, but there are indications that pending formal approval the two governments tacitly will follow a more lenient policy toward each other in dealing with the liquor question, until now one of the most serious to disturb British-American relations in recent years.

Donahey Says Hands Tied

COLUMBUS, O., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Governor Donahey today declared that the state legislature by refusing to pass a bill on calling a special session to enact city relief tax legislation, but indicated that though he was empowered to call the assembly in special session for that purpose, he would not do so.

Five In One Family Perish

POTTSVILLE, PA., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A mother and her four daughters, ranging in age from one to sixteen years of age, were burned to death in a fire at Middleport, five miles from here early today when their home was almost completely destroyed. Andrew Marvella, the husband and father, was severely burned in attempting to rescue them.

Mrs. Marvella lost her life in an heroic effort to save her children. With part of the house a blazing furnace, she dashed inside and to the second floor and seized her one year old baby daughter from her crib and was making her way to the stairway when she was overcome by smoke.

In the back bed room over the kitchen two girls were found in bed overcome and burned to death probably as they slept.

Another daughter was found under the bed where she had evidently crawled in a confused effort to escape from the smoke-filled room.

A fifth daughter was probably saved from a similar fate through a visit to her grandmother, where she spent the night.

FUMES AND WHISKY BLAMED

CINCINNATI, O., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Gas fumes and moonshine whiskey caused the death of Peter Cook, 65, Lockland, according to the verdict today of Coroner D. C. Hendley. Cook was found lying on the floor of his home with a coffee pot in one hand and a bottle of moonshine in the other. A small stove was burning and was giving off fumes.

One Long Term and Barred From Re-Election For President, Plan Favored By Underwood

CLEVELAND, O., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Representative Martin L. Duvey, Democrat, of Kent, O., announced today he will take a referendum of world war veterans in the Fourteenth District to determine their stand on the "teapot" bonus, according to a Washington dispatch from the "Cleveland News" correspondent.

If a majority of them oppose the bonus he will abandon his stand in behalf of the bonus and vote against it, he said, according to the dispatch.

Pinchot Not A Candidate

HARRISBURG, PA., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Reports that Governor Pinchot would be a candidate for president this year were dispelled by Speaker Jay C. Goodnow, of the state house of representatives after a conference with the governor today, by the statement that "for some time it has been known among the governor's friends that he would not be a formal candidate for president, and would not ask for instructions delegates from Pennsylvania."

Woman and Pets Perish In Fumes

NEW YORK, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Beside the body of Mrs. Jennie Lane, former school teacher, found dead from asphyxiation in her room at Brooklyn today, were the bodies of six of her fifteen cats. Nine cats made their way to the sidewalk for air when the door was burst open by police.

Mrs. Lane was found within a few feet of a gas stove on which two burners were open but unlighted. The police thought it was a case of suicide.

Knows Whereabouts Of Her Father

CHICAGO, January 23.—Charles Appel, father of Lila Lee, motion picture actress, and who disappeared after he was indicted for embezzlement and operation of a confidence game, is in constant communication with his daughter and his wife, according to Assistant State's Attorney John Sharkey.

The prosecutor yesterday questioned Mrs. Appel, who told him that she had turned over notes aggregating $30,000, signed by herself and Lila Lee to a former police captain, but refused to disclose who she had done so, beyond indicating the money was paid in connection with her husband's deals. She would not divulge the whereabouts of her husband, the prosecutor said.

ENTIRE DAY OF ARGUMENT

CINCINNATI, O., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—An entire day of argument was in prospect when Criminal Court opened today, to conclude the trial of George H. Pezall and William H. Chaffield, Jr., former partners in the brokerage business, who are charged with embezzlement. It is probable that the case will not go to the jury until tomorrow.

Offering Relief To Banks In Northwest

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—The Federal Reserve bank here today announced that it would make a loan of $250,000 to the banks of the Northwest to help them meet their obligations.

A total of $320,000 in Federal Reserve funds was brought here by Harry L. Ziemer from the Ninth District Bank at Minneapolis, and as a result local bankers are becoming more optimistic.

Charles Meyer, a managing director of the War Finance Corporation, is expected here today from Chicago to discuss further financial aid for South Dakota banks in conferences with the State Guaranty Fund Commissioner W. H. McMaster, and a number of bankers.

Local bankers say the situation has cleared materially, despite the closing of a small bank at Renwick, S. D., yesterday. The bankers say it may be possible to surmount present difficulties without further trouble if they receive immediately substantial Federal assistance.

TEAPOT DOME SCANDAL THREATENS TO ENGULF SENATE

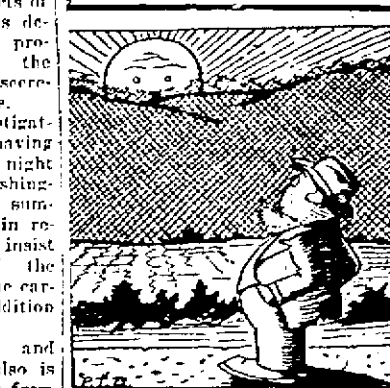

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—While the Senate Teapot Dome investigating committee is awaiting the return here of former Interior Secretary Albert B. Fall, discussion of sensational testimony already given in the Wyoming oil lease inquiry ranged through all phases of official life and threatened to engulf senate debate.

Senator Canaway, Democrat, Arkansas, who has attacked the official acts of Mr. Fall on the senate floor, was demanding action on his resolution proposing immediate cancellation of the lease entered into by the former secretary with the Sinclair oil interests.

Fall is expected to face the investigating committee again on Friday, having announced in New Orleans last night that he would leave today for Washington in response to a committee summons. The committee's purpose is to insist that he explain the source of the $100,000 he has already testified he carried to El Paso to purchase an addition to his New Mexico ranch.

J. W. Zerk, personal friend and counsel for Harry F. Sinclair, also is expected to arrive here tomorrow from New Orleans under a subpoena issued after the committee had been told by Sinclair's secretary, G. D. Wahlberg, that Sinclair had loaned Zerk $100,000, evidenced by $25,000 in Liberty bonds, and shares of Sinclair Consolidating.

Interesting Question Raised By Motor Bus Company In Controversy With Railroads

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23.—An interesting question in the fight between the motor bus and railroad interests in Ohio for supremacy in transportation has been raised by the Red Star Transportation company, operating between Columbus and Portsmouth, in appealing to the state supreme court for a reversal of the public utilities commission's decision denying the company the right to operate their buses over that route.

The bus company raises the following question as to the interpretation of the Tolliver-Fremont act regulating bus transportation: Did the legislature intend to confer upon the public utilities commission authority to deny motor vehicles the rights and privileges of operation on the public highways, when in the opinion of the commission steam or electric roads are rendering sufficient and adequate service, but to deny the commission the right to refuse the railroads permission to construct their tracks and operate trains when in the opinion of the commission motor vehicles were rendering adequate and sufficient service. The Red Star company recites that the utilities commission denied them a certificate of convenience

REV. BRIGHT TALKS TO KIWANIANS; TO VOTE ON DAY OR NIGHT MEETINGS

A splendid attendance marked Wednesday's meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Mary Louise. Rev. H. E. Bright, pastor of the Bigelow Methodist church, was the speaker, dwelling particularly on education, this being Educational Week among the Kiwanis Clubs International.

His address was teeming full of interest, with just enough wit scattered along to suit the aesthetic tastes of Kiwanians. A vote of thanks was extended Manager Fred T. Tynes for taking such splendid care of the impetus of the Children's Home who were his guests on last Friday during the showing of Circus Days, in which the children's favorite, Jackie Coogan, played the leading role. Mr. Tynes admitted the children free of charge and saw to it they were given the choice seats of his popular theatre. The Street Railroad & Light Co. were also thanked for transporting the children free of charge to and from the home. Superintendent Hawes wrote to the Kiwanians expressing the thanks of the officials for the interest shown in the children, adding that all who attended the picture play had had a splendid time. The children of the Home are looking up on the Kiwanians as their big brothers, due to the treatment accorded them on numerous occasions. The question of selecting evenings for the holding of the sessions instead of the noon hour will come up for discussion at next week's meeting. It will be given a complete and thorough discussion.

According to work received from Washington, Wednesday afternoon, Miss M. Margaret Searl has been appointed postmistress at South Webster, where she resides. She succeeds Stanley Mittendorf, who has been the postmaster at South Webster since the death of the late Postmaster John W. Cole of that city. Miss Searl is well known here and is a sister of Mrs. A. G. Dunn of Officers street.

LOCAL NEWS

Edward Cunningham, Mrs. Harry W. Miller, Attorney W. L. Dickey and Marvin C. Clark of this city left Wednesday for Columbus to attend a meeting of the State Republican Central Committee, which has been called together for a meeting tonight and on Thursday.

The local police department notified the Tulsa, Oklahoma, authorities Wednesday afternoon to release from custody Ernest Troxel, 30, alleged bigamist, after it was stated, wife No. 2, Mrs. Opal Troxel, of 1218 Ninth street, expressed a desire not to prosecute Troxel, following her return from Greenup, Ky., where she declared the official refused to take any action towards the return of the prisoner to meet a charge.

Troxel, who is a former local steel worker, was married to the local woman at Greenup, Ky., about four months ago. It is claimed, without having obtained a divorce from Mrs. Ruth Troxel to whom he was married three years ago in Rocky Ford, Colorado, it is alleged.

Plans have been completed for the annual banquet of the Portsmouth Council, Boy Scouts of America. This is to be held Friday, January 25, at 8:15 at the Mary Louise.

A very interesting program has been planned by the committee in charge. The speakers for the evening include, Scott Krauss, Scout Commissioner of Columbus Council, Rev. H. E. Bright and Mayor Ralph Calver. Music will be furnished by a unit formed Tuesday Scout orchestra consisting of nine pieces.

A business meeting will follow the banquet at which will be held the election of several officers for the coming year, and other matters of interest and importance will be discussed.

The Gallia street and New Boston fire companies responded to the alarm and the flames were suppressed by the use of chemicals. The damage was estimated at $50. Hazelbeck Will Insure You.

POSTMASTER ROW AT HILLSBORO ENDS WHEN C. F. HARRIS IS NOMINATED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Simultaneously with the publication of the list of eligibles by the United States Civil Service Commission today, President Coolidge sent to the Senate the nomination of Charles F. Harris to be Postmaster of Hillsboro, Ohio.

Harris was recommended for the appointment by Representative Charles C. Kears, Barabwa, who thereby has disposed of another post-office row in Highland county. Endless haste in making the appointment is attributed to the presence in Washington of Colonel D. Q. Marrow, Republican leader of Highland County and Harris' chief sponsor.

Six independent Republicans of Hillsboro contested with Harris in the recent Civil Service examination. They had hoped to crowd Harris off the eligible list, but the list, made public today, had him in second place, headed only by Joseph A. Head, former postmaster and wealthy manufacturer. Richard O. Davies, life insurance agent, was third.

The appointment today foils plans of independents to lodge protests with President Coolidge against the selection of Harris. They have been waiting for the official announcement of the results of the examination before taking such action, but Mr. Kears was able to forestall this by obtaining the nomination in the Senate on the same day the eligible list was made public contrary to the usual custom.

When the case of John Collier, soft drink proprietor, Eleventh and Clay streets, charged with selling liquor, was called for trial in Municipal court Wednesday, it was continued until Jan. 29, on account of the absence from the city of Chief Rome Arthur, prosecuting witness.

George Hays and Fred Armstrong, arrested last Saturday at a house on Seventh street, Earlton, on charges of possession of liquor, changed their plea from not guilty to guilty and Judge Sprague deferred sentence until later.

Police Investigating

Ethel and Anna Pratt, who were arrested several days ago, have so far failed to appear in Municipal court to face a statutory charge.

Police were busy today investigating a rumor that the two young women had left the city.

OBITUARY

Nicholas H. Windle
After a several month's illness caused by cancer, death claimed one of McDermott's beloved and respected citizens when Nicholas H. Windle passed away Tuesday morning at 4:40 o'clock at his home in that village. He was about 60 years of age and had spent most of his life in Radnor. Four years ago he moved to McDermott where he was a valued employee in the Waller Bros. stone mill. He also worked in a stone mill at Radnor.

In addition to his faithful and loving wife he leaves to mourn their loss three daughters, Mrs. J. F. Elton, of Seaman, O., Mrs. C. E. Thomas, of Radnor, and Mrs. Donald Shaffer, of McDermott.

He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Grafton and Frank, of Radnor; Jonathan, of Portoria; William of Marathon, O.; Sereen and May, of Akron and Ella, of Portsmouth.

Mr. Windle united with the M. E. church at Radnor in his early boyhood and had lived a devout Christian life. He was an able leader in church and Sunday School work. He was an active member of the I. O. O. F. Lodge at McDermott, a charter member of the K. of P. lodge at Olway and the Improved Order of Red Men at Radnor.

Funeral services will be held at McDermott M. E. church at 10:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon and at the Radnor M. E. church at one o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial will be in Newsum cemetery.

Charles Daniel Tackett

Bronchial pneumonia caused the death of Charles Daniel Tackett, four months old son and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tackett, of Carey's Run, about nine o'clock Tuesday morning. The parents notified Monday night that the baby was not in his usual spirits but failed to call in a physician. The baby's condition grew rapidly worse Tuesday morning and passed away before the parents could take the baby to a physician.

The body was taken to the office of Coroner Vigil Fowler late yesterday afternoon and after an examination he found bronchial pneumonia caused death. Burial was on Carey's Run today.

To Broadcast Speech

Saturday January 26th, the Philadelphia Real Estate Board will broadcast the proceedings, speeches and music accompanying their 16th annual banquet.

This meeting will be broadcast from W. F. I at 8:30 p. m. Eastern. Among the speakers will be Hon. K. M. Landis, Commissioner of Baseball.

Must Pay His Wife

When Joseph Grubbs, 526 Second street, charged with nonsupport of his minor child, appeared in Municipal court Wednesday, he pleaded not guilty and after hearing his story Judge Sprague counter charged the case and gave him another chance on condition that he make weekly payments to his wife, Rella Grubbs, from whom he is separated, instead of paying money to another party for the child's support, as he charged he had been doing. The wife declared that she had not been receiving the amount of money he claimed to have paid.

The upset of the Bok episode will be more discussion of the League of Nations or association of nations. What alternative proposal will be offered? Mr.
Bok has challenged the "irreconcilables"
to put up their plan to the American people. Thus does a private citizen with a fortune which he says he obtained from the American people, presumably as the editor of a successful periodical and wants to give back to them in the form of service, turn things upside down here and force to the front
an issue that so many professional politicians have declared dead. It is a striking illustration of what a private citizen with a disinterested motive can do in public affairs.

Huntington Gets Plant

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Jan. 23.—
Proposed location of a hand glass manufacturing plant in Huntington by the National Window Glass Workers association, to commence operations
March 1, was announced yesterday by Thomas Reynolds, secretary of the union organization, following conferences with chamber of commerce officials here.

The new plant will employ more than 300 expert hand glass workers and will have an estimated payroll of $1,000,000 annually, according to Mr.
Reynolds.

Met Instant Death

Mrs. Lloyd J. Morehead of Ninth street, whose husband was recently killed in New York has learned that he was instantly killed when he fell in front of a subway train. The crowd on the train following found Mr.
Morehead's body and notified officials of the company. While Mr. Morhead's body was mutilated Providence was kind inasmuch as his features were not mutilated.

Commissioners After Lot On Seventh Street To Widen Site Of Courthouse

County Commissioners in session at the Court house Tuesday authorized Prosecuting Attorney S. Anselm Skellton to start legal proceedings with a view to acquiring a lot fronting on Seventh street, across the alley and east of the sheriff's cave, desired by the county as a part of the new Court house site.

Pursuant to the action of the board, Prosecutor Skellton announced that he would file condemnation proceedings in Probate court, in which event it will be necessary to impanel

a jury to fix a value on the premises sought.

Miss Mary McCarty is the owner
of the lot on which there is a house, and the lot is thirty feet wide and runs from Seventh street to an east and west alley and directly north of the lot fronting on Sixth street, bought from George Kah a few months ago.

Seeks Return of Former Husband Who Now Faces a Charge of Bigamy

Upon learning that her husband, Ernest Troxel, 30, former local steelworker, under arrest in Tulsa, Okla., can not be prosecuted in Okla.
on a bigamy charge, because the alleged offense was committed in Kansas where she married Troxel at Greenup about four months ago,
Mrs. Opal Troxel, 24, 1218 Ninth street, went to Greenup yesterday, on advice of the police, to confer with the Commonwealth attorney with a view of seeking the return of and prosecution of Troxel in the courts there for marrying her without going through the formality of obtaining a divorce from Mrs. Ruth Troxel, now living at Rocky Ford, Colo., whom, it is claimed, he married

three years ago.

Troxel was first apprehended in the Oklahoma city for driving away
a mortgaged automobile when he left Portsmouth for the west a few months ago, but later wired funds to pay off the mortgage claim and the charge was not pressed further.

Hilltoppers Seek New Street Car Schedule

Calling attention to the more thickly settled condition of the Hilltop, Manager Adam Frick in a letter to the Portsmouth Street Railroad and Light Company yesterday suggested the establishment of a 15 or 20 minute service on the belt line. A twenty minute schedule was maintained before the war and a revival of such a schedule is now sought. The communication follows requests from Hilltop citizens who have presented the matter to the Chamber of Commerce.

What's the Reason?

IN thousands of homes where one or more of the family are nervous and irritable, the cause may be hidden—hard to understand.
But usually, "There's a Reason."

Doctors and dietitians are very generally agreed that people who are nervous or suffer with digestive disturbances should not drink coffee or tea because these beverages contain a drug, caffeine, and their use tends to increase nervous irritability.

Many of us just drift into wrong habits of eating and drinking, though we usually know better. So if there are nervous ones in your family, suppose you make a change—serve Postum for thirty days.

Postum is a pure cereal beverage. It furnishes all the pleasure of a hot drink—cheery warmth and good flavor. Postum is refreshing, satisfying, healthful; and there's nothing in all the world quite so effective as health to overcome nervousness and make life worth while.

Postum for Health

"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in cans) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes.
The cost of either form is about one-half cent a cup.

Lucasville Corn Show Opens January 29

First, second, third and fourth prizes will be awarded in corn, wheat, and potatoes and potato exhibits at the second annual Corn Show, to be held in the Lucasville Community hall Tuesday and Wednesday, January 29 and 30,
under the auspices of the Scioto County
Farm Bureau, Lucasville Betterment Association and grain growers of the county. Dr. J. N. Thomas is president; Rev. George H. Weaver, secretary-treasurer, and R. P. Oerturf, manager.

Rules governing the show include:
All exhibits must have been grown
during the season of 1922.

Any entry of corn shall consist of 10
ears.

Any entry wheat, potatoes or soy beans shall consist of one peck.

No exhibitor shall be allowed to make more than one entry in any one class.

All entries must be in hands of committees by evening of January 25.

Corn-winning prizes become the property of the Association, to be sold at auction at close of the show.

Show open to all grain and potato growers.

Officers are not allowed to exhibit.

Entries may be left at the Farm Bureau office, Portsmouth; Koch's Hardware store, Wheelersburg; Stockham and Payne's store, Minford; any store
in Lucasville; Johnson and Mercer's store, Salsburg; Bank of Otway; home of R. P. Oerturf, West Side. No entry fee.

Prizes for corn will be $4, $3, $2 and $1. Ohio Valley, Scioto Valley and Union corn are the groups to be shown. Prizes for wheat and soy beans will be $3, $2 and $1. The same prizes apply to potato exhibits.

SWEEPSTAKES
Best 10 ears of Yellow corn, $10.
Best 10 ears of white corn, $10.
GRAND CHAMPION
Best 10 ears corn, any variety, Silver Trophy Cup.

SPECIAL CLASS CORN
Best one bushel corn—First to be announced.

Best one bushel corn—Second, $10.
Best one bushel corn—Third, $5.

Potato groups will be Earl Ohio's (home-grown seed), Earl Ohio's (certified seed), Punchbowl, Irish Cobbler, White Star best entry, any other variety. The basis for judging corn will be: Seed condition, size and suitability to locality and uniformity. The basis for judging potatoes will be uniformity
as to size and shape, freedom from disease, firmness to variety, characteristics, typical size for variety.

W. D. Hanger will judge the seed corn and N. W. Gilman, potato exhibits.
Both are experts in their respective lines in Ohio State University extension service.

An educational program to be given in connection with the show will include talks by extension service specialists and Scioto County farmers. The educational talks and demonstrations will be on both afternoons of the show.

One Long

erry's foreign policy is already hewn out for it by an inexorable logic of events and that our destiny henceforth is unalterably interwoven with the destinies of our sister nations overseas. It is the lack of vision to see this of which I have complained; for it is of this blindness, and this alone, that a selfish policy of inaction and aloofness is born.

In presenting his argument for a single term of either six or seven years for presidents, Senator Underwood gave a brief history of the question as it was discussed in the first Federal convention when propositions ranging from a term of three years with possible re-election to seven years without re-eligibility, were thoroughly discussed. He Went on to show that once the states in convention decided that the presidential term should be seven years that he should be ineligible for reelection. He told that Washington could have had a third term but refused it and that Thomas Jefferson did likewise and gave as his reason that: "If some termination be not fixed by the constitution,

for supplied by practice, his office, nominally for years, will in fact become for life."

Senator Underwood said that Andrew Jackson not only refused a third term,
but even advocated a limit be inserted in the constitution. He said in the time of Grant the house passed a resolution by a vote of 294 to 12, endorsing the precedent established by Washington.

Senator Underwood quoted Benjamin Harrison and Woodrow Wilson, as having criticized the present presidential term arrangement.

Would Not Be Political Center
"Relieve the newly-elected president of his eligibility to another term and he will cease to be the center of political maneuver," said Senator Underwood.

"For your executive from this intolerable role and you will leave him free to devote all his powers to the great masses of the people."

"Another thing, the unsettledness of business throughout the country every four years is entirely too frequent a disturbance of our affairs of trade and traffic. The heavy financial losses thus incurred, added to the ever increasing costs of the elections in the states, the expenses borne by the candidates, make a total that if fairly reckoned would doubtless weaken the people from their apparent lethargy and stir them to prompt and efficient action."

In his attack on the bureaucracy prevailing in this country, he said that at present there are 61,953 employees in the District of Columbia and 483,517 additional employees in the United States at large, according to figures of the civil service commission.

"A total of 548,506 all civilians employed by the government," said the senator. "And yet it is proposed at every session of congress to add to the swollen functions of government still further activities, to create more bureaus, and to increase the already staggering army of civilians on the Federal pay rolls."

Time To Call Halt
"It is, indeed, time to call a halt. Our Federal government is becoming more and more centralized; our states are becoming less and less autonomous. Unless our steps are retraced or brought to a standstill, in a few years we will find ourselves menaced by a danger from within that will be more serious to the safety and preservation of our institutions than any from without.

"Bureaucracy is the outgrowth of a continued concentration of administrative power in the government departments and bureaus resulting inevitably in undue interference on the part of officials not only in the details of government but in matters outside the scope of their functions and which would be beyond their meddling, if our country is to endure as a democracy."

"Bureaucracy has been a contributing cause to the decay of Europe. Germany was honeycombed with it long prior to the fall of that Empire. And which, say what you will, set Austria on her feet, stipulated in its contract with that country that she should get rid of, at least a hundred thousand bureaucratic employees."

Bureaucracy has added peril to our own Republic. Not alone in the establishment of a government of bureaucrats, or in the enormous tax burdens or in the loss to constructive industry of thousands of able bodied men and women, but in the weapon afforded the political party in power with its legion of henchmen securely entrenched in its offices."

"I have chose rather to dwell upon two subjects that are, from their nature, not so apt to be conspicuous to the public eye. I have elected to speak of them because they are of vital importance to the Republic. They do not appeal to the great masses of people so forcibly as those issues which touch
them more nearly in their daily affairs,
but they are nevertheless of indispensable importance. It is true they are more or less secreted from the public gaze, but those ailments that are hidden are often more dangerous than those that are visible."

Peasants

this evening when the public will be admitted to view the body as it lies in state. The government authorities are prepared to handle the hundreds of thousands who until Saturday will march by the body—a crowd which may be rival in numbers that which passed the body of King Edward.

It is not yet known whether Leon Trotsky, who is ill, will be able to attend the funeral.

In the meantime, the party differences which have been bitterly aired during the recent official conferences and discussions, will be subordinated.

After the dead leader is buried, the all-Russian soviet congress will formally decide who is to try to fill the vacant place.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

DEAR DOLLY—I read so many of your letters and I don't believe that you think we men are human. Is it because you are a woman and don't understand men, or what? Dolly you always hand it to the men and don't understand them. Dolly I am a married man and I have a wife and I am sure that after he had done this much for her he would be willing to go places with her occasionally. How do you figure that a woman can spend a man's hard-earned money and still not be willing to do her duties and that it is all his fault? I would like to see you! I bet you are an old maid. How about it? Dolly I am a married man and my wife is always ready and we never have any trouble, and I certainly appreciate my home and my wife.

Don't get embarrassed, if they ask you what caused your warts—just tell them that you have been playing with toads and let it go at that, and the joke will be on them. Warts may come from excessive development of the papillae (whatever that is) of the true skin. To be sure, they cause annoyance to the adolescent mind—not from any sensation they produce, but because of their unpleasant appearance, and as you say by people asking you about them. Various remedies are suggested. It used to be supposed, and I suppose that some people are still supposing, that the application of a piece of stolen beef to the warts would cause them to disappear. Canine or miltic acid will remove them but I would not advise anyone to try these remedies. If you are a child these warts will eventually disappear and you will never know what happened to them. If not, you might have a physician tell you how to remove them.

DEAR DOLLY—Can you tell me how warts should be worn on hats and when they should be worn? I have a winter hat that I would like to put a veil on until spring hats get cheaper. Should veils be worn over the face or thrown back over the hat? Are they worn in the evening?

Veils are being worn by some people, but I don't think they would make a winter hat look very "springy." Black and tulle veils over the face are quite popular. They may be turned back over the hat or left over the face. The smart veils are almost as expensive as a hat and if your money is limited, I would advise you to wear your winter hat until later in the season, say March or April, and then get a new spring hat. If you have any left over from last spring or fall you might wear it. Why not watch the advertisements in the paper and you may be able to find a nice bargain hat for a dollar, that will last you until you can afford to buy a better one. Veils are not worn over the face after night.

SOCIAL NEWS

Not in many weeks has Portsmouth society enjoyed such a lovely affair as the charming bridge-lunch given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Harry E. Grimes, Mrs. Harry E. Taylor and Mrs. John A. Grimes in the handsome home of Mrs. Grimes and Mrs. Taylor on Second street.

Clusters of colorful blossoms added to the beauty of the spacious drawing room, in which the guests were greeted by the three hostesses and Mrs. Harold Holt, wife of the new rector of All Saints' church, who received with them.

Preceding the games the guests were served with a beautifully appointed course luncheon at the seven tables attractively arranged for the occasion. Each table was centered with a crystal basket filled with spring flowers and covered with silver.

Mrs. Floyd C. Fuller proved a most gracious hostess to about forty members of the Young People's Missionary Society of Bigelow church last evening at her beautiful new home on Franklin Boulevard.

The business meeting opened with devotionals, the Bible lesson from the 7th chapter of Matthew, was read by Miss Elizabeth Rockwell, the members repeating the Lord's Prayer.

A very interesting report of the last meeting was read by the secretary, Mrs. E. W. Lewis, followed by the report of the treasurer, Mrs. Sam Wise.

Miss Lois Brownell and Miss Caroline Mackay were the committee appointed to collect old newspapers and magazines to be sold for the pledge money.

A very interesting dialogue was given by Mrs. Pearl E. Selby and Mrs. Floyd C. Fuller, taken from the Missionary Friend.

Opening overseas mail consisted of a letter from China, read by Miss Alice Treuthart; a letter from India, read by Miss Clara Raugh; a letter from Italy, read by Miss Ida Meyer; a letter from Korea, read by Miss Alice Jackson; a letter from France, read by Mrs. Frances McColm. These letters proved most entertaining and instructive to those present.

Two beautiful vocal solos were given in a sweet manner by Miss Helen Matthews, with her mother, Mrs. George E. Matthews, at the piano.

Miss Caroline Mackay gave a reading from the Missionary Friend.

During the social hour a most amusing guessing game, entitled "The Romance of the Flowers," was given. Miss Florence Foster, receiving a souvenir for the most correct number of guesses, and Miss Clara Raugh was presented with a miniature souvenir for the smallest number of guesses.

More fun followed with a Valentine passing party, each guest receiving a Valentine as a souvenir of a most delightful evening.

Miss Helen Matthews was welcomed as a new member.

Trick ice cream, cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Fuller, assisted by Mrs. Leslie E. Taylor, Mrs. C. E. Foster, Mrs. Maurice L. Haywood, Misses Caroline Mackay, Alice Jackson, Elizabeth Rockwell and Minnie Padillon.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. L. E. Cunningham, Mrs. Newt Horn, Mrs. J. C. Sears, Mrs. George E. Matthews and Miss Mary Greisinger.

The condition of Mrs. Russell W. Anderson, who is critically ill at her home on Fifth street, remains about the same.

Last evening at 6 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Board of 1729 Galia street entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. Stella Herdman of Columbus, guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ferguson of Murray street. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ferguson and daughters, Ruth, Dorothy and Betty; Mrs. Sylvia Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Board and children, Charles and Margaret.

Miss Mary McCrystal of Jonkies, Ky., is the guest of Miss Mayne Flanagan of 1145 Fifth street.

"BLUE GRASS BLUES"

Get it on Brunswick Record at Summers & Son, 1005 Galia.

Mrs. R. G. Gilmore has returned from Xenia, Ohio, where on Sunday, she was the soloist at re-opening and re-dedication services of the First Presbyterian church, The New York City, Dr. J. King Gibson, stated clerk of the Dayton Presbytery, and Dr. W. R. McChesney, President of Cedarville College, were the speakers of the day.

Mrs. Michael Carroll left this afternoon for her home in Cincinnati after a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Taylor, of Third and Waller streets.

Division C of the First Baptist Ladies' Aid Society will meet tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Raybe, 627 Front street. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Evan Williams and children have returned from a three weeks' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Emmons, of Huntington, W. Va. They were accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Charles Gohier, who will be their guest for the balance of the week.

The ladies of Manly church will serve one of their delicious luncheons again tomorrow, beginning at 11:30 o'clock. A tempting menu has been prepared for the occasion and the patronage of the table is solicited.

Miss Caroline Mackay of 1314 Ninth street and the Misses Mae and Levisa Patterson of Pikeville will leave next Monday for New York City, where they will join Miss Marion Krohn of Ashland, Ohio. They will sail February 2nd on the White Star liner Baltic for a cruise of the Mediterranean, visiting Italy, Greece, Turkey, Palestine and Egypt. They will also spend some time in Paris and London before returning to the United States about May first. Miss Krohn will be pleasantly remembered as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shigelson last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman of 1105 Second street are moving to Huntington, W. Va., where Mr. Zimmerman will be employed with the C. & O. railway company.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Christian Church will hold a class party tomorrow evening from 7:30 o'clock until 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. W. Beck, 817 Murray street. All honorary members are invited to attend.

Group 14 of Trinity Ladies' Aid Society will hold a rummage sale in the vacant store room of Eleventh street, formerly occupied by McLaughlin's grocery store. Those having articles for this sale are asked to leave them at the home of Mrs. Edward Goetz on Seventh street not later than Thursday evening.

The members of the Friday Afternoon Sewing club will be entertained next Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. C. Lloyd on Rose Ridge.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wandley of Cincinnati is visiting with relatives near Seletoville.

Mrs. Addie P. Marshall of Chillicothe will return to her home today, having enjoyed a brief visit with her father, Mr. Theo Dory, of Franklin Avenue.

MR. GEORGE W. HARRIS.
NEW ATHENS O.

"The difference in my condition from what it was a week or two ago is surprisingly good," remarked Mr. George W. Harris to the Kad-dok Man a few days ago. Mr. Harris runs a general store in New Athens, Harrison county, and is known to every one in the town.

"I further continued: 'When I started taking my first bottle of Kad-dok my health was very poor. I had no appetite and nothing tasted good to me. I suffered constantly from bowel trouble and was very weak. I was just strong enough to keep on my feet, but that was about all. Kad-dok, as I said before, has brought about a great change in my general condition. I am hungry all the time and eat as heartily as I did when I was a boy. I feel much stronger and my bowel trouble has almost gone. It would be impossible for any remedy to do me any more good than Kad-dok.'

"If you are not feeling alright, try Kad-dok, and get your system back in shape."

Kad-dok can be obtained in Portsmouth at Fisher & Strick Drug Store.

Remarkable Discovery Banishes Gray Hair

A Proved Substitute for the Lost Pigmentation

Original Color Quickly Appears

Science again has scored a triumph in the discovery of a very remarkable liquid known as Kolor-Bak. If you are gray, just apply this liquid to the hair or scalp and your hair will soon take on the actual color it had in the past. Not a trace of grayness will remain.

Kolor-Bak comes in the form of a clean and colorless liquid, containing properties which quickly restore the lost color to the hair and give it renewed vigor. And note that the one preparation is for all colors of hair. No special solution required for each color—no samples of hair required.

You will find also that after using Kolor-Bak the hair has the same shade throughout. It does not appear streaked, faded or "dyed."

Every scientist, every physician, knows that gray hair (that has ceased to receive its normal supply of coloring matter or pigments from certain tiny cells (called follicles or papillae) in the scalp, because these cells have become inactive from illness, shock of some kind, scalp disease, dandruff, infection, neglect of the hair, or lack of circulation, etc. But no matter what the cause of the grayness, it is simply amazing to see how it disappears when Kolor-Bak is used. Kolor-Bak is a real substitute for the natural pigmentation.

Kolor-Bak has been proved by hundreds of thousands of people, once gray, now with hair in the original color. Get a bottle today.

"Gambling Cases" Are Carried Up

PORTSMOUTH, O., Jan. 23.—Prosecutor W. L. Elkins has carried to the court of appeals the cases of Scott W. Wilson, E. Pratt, Fred Campbell, E. J. Porter, N. McMahon and Harry Ulrich, who were indicted for gambling and the other four men for promoting a lottery, which consisted in McMahon's case of giving away prizes at the Marlow Theatre and in the case of the other four for alleged raffling off of an automobile. The indictments against the men, as well as those against many others for betting, were dismissed by Judge Layne in upholding the contention of the men's attorneys that the indictments were not definite and were not correctly drawn. The prosecutor, believing the indictments to be correctly drawn, since they followed the form furnished by a company of manufacturers of such supplies, desiring to know just where he stands in such matters, has made a test case of the matter and has carried it to the court of appeals.

While not all the men indicted were mentioned in the appeal, it is assumed that if the indictments are declared legal, these will also be resurrected.

U. S. BUILDS BETTER ROADS THAN EUROPE

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 23.—(By the A. P.)—That the United States is building roads much superior to any to be found in Europe, was the declaration of W. E. Blair of Cleveland, founder and vice president of the National Association of Paving Brick Manufacturers in opening the annual convention of the association here today.

"Within a few years, due to the influence of the automobile, our nation will be covered with a network of magnificent highways, such as mankind never dreamed of," said Mr. Blair.

Mr. Blair had just returned from Europe, where he made a study of roads.

ARGUMENTS STARTED IN TRIAL OF BROKERS

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 23.—(By the A. P.)—Hearing of testimony was completed and arguments begun today in the trial of George H. Bazell and W. H. Chaffield, Jr., former Cincinnati brokers who are charged with embezzlement.

It was believed that the final arguments for both sides would be completed tomorrow and the case be placed in the hands of the jury before noon.

GOOD LOOKS GOOD HEALTH

WENDEL'S SALTS, AMBITION BRAND—that's the answer. Some of you ladies who read this may have complexion disfigured by liver spots and discolorations. If this is the case, don't worry about it and don't use face lotions. Just use one of our Wen-del's Salts, Ambition Brand, and get a large bottle of WENDEL'S SALTS, AMBITION BRAND, for only sixty cents. It will clear your complexion by helping to drive from your system the poisonous uric acid that is affecting your liver, stomach and kidneys. A more rough, moist skin isn't due to the sun or weather, but to an upset condition which uric acid usually causes. Go to the root of the trouble. Destroy that and your good looks and health will return.

WENDEL'S SALTS, AMBITION BRAND, is a wonderful preparation for indigestion, biliousness, constipation, headache, rheumatism, malaria, nervousness, kidney troubles—when caused by uric acid poison.

Remember WENDEL'S SALTS, AMBITION BRAND, is guaranteed by WINTERBROS, and dealers everywhere. It is pleasant to take, acts quickly and you can get your money back on the first bottle purchased if dissatisfied.

Frieda Hempel Concert Friday Night

Frieda Hempel, who is to sing her vocal concert in the High School auditorium Friday night, is being accorded a triumph wherever she appears. She will sing in Bowling Green, Kentucky, tonight and upon her arrival was presented by the mayor with the keys of the city. Miss Hempel is expected to arrive in Portsmouth Thursday at midnight and will remain here until Saturday afternoon. She is to give the Jenny Lind concert in Cincinnati, Monday night.

A replica of Jenny Lind's gown, developed in gold brocade, is on exhibit in the Kay-Graham window. From Portsmouth the quaint costume, with its full hooped skirt and pointed bodice is to be sent to Pittsburgh. The gown was made in Paris and is an exact copy of the costume worn by the famous Swedish Nightingale.

Tickets for the concert are to be reserved at the Kay-Graham store Thursday morning.

More Surplus Army Material Sold To Oregon By The U. S.

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the A. P.)—Another sale of surplus army war materials to the Oregon government has been completed between the Mexican embassy here and officials of the Washington government.

The transaction involves the delivery to representatives of the Mexican federal government at El Paso, Texas, of 5,000 Enfield rifles and 2,500 army Colt .45 calibre automatic pistols.

A quantity of pistol ammunition also is included in the sale.

This brings the surplus of war materials sold by the United States to Mexico to a total of 10,000 Enfield rifles, eight airplanes, 5,000,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and 2,500 revolvers or pistols. The Mexican government will pay slightly less than $700,000 for the entire lot.

Has Ammunition

While the transaction just completed did not involve any request for ammunition for the additional rifles obtained, it is understood that the Oregon government has purchased a sufficient quantity of ammunition for the rifles from private sources in the United States.

Neither at the state department nor the navy department has any word been received indicating what action the Mexican rebel leaders propose to take with regard to the American protest against the mining of the harbors of Frontera, Puerto, Mexico, and Vera Cruz. So far as known no mines have yet been planted in these harbors.

Ohio River Falls 6 Feet

The Ohio river dropped back a little more than six feet in the Portsmouth district during the 24-hour period ending at seven o'clock Wednesday morning when a stage of 32.3 feet was recorded here. The fall of the water is expected to continue at a rapid rate and from all indications the stream will be back within its banks within a day or two.

Str. Greenwood, running several hours behind her schedule, passed down at 2 p. m. enroute for Cincinnati and the Tom Green arrived at the same hour, bound for Pomeroy.

Ohio Girl Suicides IN PREFERENCE TO ATTENDING SCHOOL

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO, Jan. 23.—Asking Probation Officer Edward Radford to wait until she got her wraps, Ann Ralish, 14, committed suicide by shooting yesterday. The transaction involves the delivery to representatives of the Mexican federal government at El Paso, Texas, of 5,000 Enfield rifles and 2,500 army Colt .45 calibre automatic pistols.

A quantity of pistol ammunition also is included in the sale.

This brings the surplus of war materials sold by the United States to Mexico to a total of 10,000 Enfield rifles, eight airplanes, 5,000,000 rounds of rifle ammunition and 2,500 revolvers or pistols. The Mexican government will pay slightly less than $700,000 for the entire lot.

Has Ammunition

While the transaction just completed did not involve any request for ammunition for the additional rifles obtained, it is understood that the Oregon government has purchased a sufficient quantity of ammunition for the rifles from private sources in the United States.

Neither at the state department nor the navy department has any word been received indicating what action the Mexican rebel leaders propose to take with regard to the American protest against the mining of the harbors of Frontera, Puerto, Mexico, and Vera Cruz. So far as known no mines have yet been planted in these harbors.

Ohio River Falls 6 Feet

The Ohio river dropped back a little more than six feet in the Portsmouth district during the 24-hour period ending at seven o'clock Wednesday morning when a stage of 32.3 feet was recorded here. The fall of the water is expected to continue at a rapid rate and from all indications the stream will be back within its banks within a day or two.

Str. Greenwood, running several hours behind her schedule, passed down at 2 p. m. enroute for Cincinnati and the Tom Green arrived at the same hour, bound for Pomeroy.

Ohio Girl Suicides IN PREFERENCE TO ATTENDING SCHOOL

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO, Jan. 23.—Asking Probation Officer Edward Radford to wait until she got her wraps, Ann Ralish, 14, committed suicide by shooting yesterday. The officer had called at her home to summon her to juvenile court for questioning regarding her failure to attend school. Relatives say she was a dependent. Her attempts made to compel her to go to school.

THE IDEAL WOMAN

Strong, healthy and beautiful in form and feature with a happy disposition. Upon her condition depends the physical well-being of her children and the happiness of those about her. It is only by making the best of herself that a woman can give her best to the world. When weak and ailing there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from roots and herbs which for fifty years has been restoring the women of America to health and happiness.

"the voice supreme"

"The Jenny Lind of Today." Her voice is of such transcendent quality that the critics call her the "voice supreme."

Exquisite artist with a magnetic personality. That is Frieda Hempel. Hear her!

Friday Night High School

The greatness of Frieda Hempel is destined to live forever—for her voice has been RE-CREATED by the New Edison. The New Edison's RE-CREATION of the star's voice has been compared directly with her living voice and no one hearing her make the test could distinguish living voice from RE-CREATED voice.

FAMILY IN DESTITUTE CIRCUMSTANCES

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio, January 23.—Two small children were found huddled in a two-room cabin near the Ross County Infirmary by health officials. The little ones were barefooted and their clothing was ragged. The children were of a family of eight in destitute circumstances. The mother was heartbroken because her oldest son, 19, had left home to get work. The case was called to the attention of the health department by county officials.

Program For C. E. Convention

Recruiting Office Opened

Sergeant G. McKown, of Chicago, has opened a recruiting office for enlistments in the United States Army on the second floor of the post office building.

He is a native of Quincy, Ky., but has been in the army for a number of years. Army training develops system, method, loyalty, courage, initiative, education, leadership, self control, responsibility and the essentials of success in life, and Sergeant McKown expects to enlist quite a number of Portsmouth and Scioto county boys during his stay here.

Every Army post has well organized schools for the teaching of grammar, school subject and high school subjects are also given at all principal posts. The soldier now has an opportunity to prepare under West Point graduates for entrance to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point and numerous appointments from the ranks of the Army are made every year.

During this period of training, when he is fitting himself to be a more useful and productive citizen, the soldier is well paid and cared for in every particular. His monthly pay ranges from $24.00 to $177.00 in addition to all his clothes, board, other living expenses and medical attention. Few young men in any walk of life can show such amounts of money clear at the end of the month after paying their living expenses and buying clothes. After all, it is the pay you get, it's what you have left after paying the necessities of life that counts. And the rate of pay increases substantially with length of service and promotion.

Do you want to travel? Travel broadens a man as nothing else does. If you have the desire, but not the means, the Army offers a solution. The soldier never gets on the United States Army. Troops are stationed along the Mexican border, in Panama, Alaska, Hawaii, the Philippines and China, in addition to the choicest sections of the United States. Often enlistments are open for direct assignment to one of these places. Suppose you enlist in the First for the Philippines. Your trip will probably take you to New York City, down the Atlantic coast on a transport, through the Panama Canal and up the Pacific

NEW YORK CENTRAL MEN'S PAY RAISED

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(By the A. P.)—A wage increase of approximately five per cent has been agreed upon for 15,000 engineers and firemen of the New York Central lines.

Engineers, firemen, hostlers and hostler-helpers receive the following increases: passenger service, 24 cents per 100 miles; freight service, 30 cents per 100 miles; yard and hostler service, 22 cents a day.

The settlement was announced thru the office of the vice president in an official statement which said: "Although the conference have been prolonged, they have demonstrated a desire on the part of both the management and the employees to cement the spirit of co-operation which has been such a marked characteristic of the New York Central service."

RAID POKER GAME

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23.—(By the A. P.)—Led by Safety Director Edwin D. Barry, police today raided an attorney's office in a downtown office building and broke up an alleged poker game. The attorney and six other business men were taken into a patrol wagon and taken to central police station, where they were charged with gambling. More than $100 left lying on the table as stakes was seized.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

AKRON, O., Jan. 23.—(By the A. P.)—H. V. Johnson, Kennecott's "fighting mayor," pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery preferred by Dan Zeisloft, banker and former safety director, when arraigned before Municipal Judge E. E. Zeigler today. He was released on $100 bond pending a preliminary hearing January 29.

The affidavit charges Johnson with throwing Zeisloft out of the mayor's office on January 14. The two men entered the courtroom together, apparently on friendly terms.

CONTINUE EFFORTS TO SETTLE TAX DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, January 23.—(By the A. P.)—House Republican leaders continued their efforts to reach a compromise basis on the sugar duties of the Mellon tax bill despite renewed indications from the White House that President Coolidge was determined to accept no modifications in this feature of the treasury revenue measure, considered the crux of the tax reduction scheme.

Tax revision was discussed at today's cabinet meeting and afterward it was made plain that the president stood squarely behind the Mellon plan and its fundamental principles, and would agree only to amendments designed to perfect it.

BABE STARTS FOR HOME

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—(By the A. P.)—Clotus Moore, the eight-month-old baby of St. Louis from whose right lung a tack was removed at the University of Pennsylvania hospital on Sunday, today started for home in charge of his nurse, Mr. Chester Jackson, who had charge of the case, said the baby's recovery was unusually quick. The child will continue to remain under observation at St. Louis.

AFTER STATE LEGION CONVENTION

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio, January 23.—Ross County Post, No. 62, American Legion, is after the state Legion convention for 1923. Plans have progressed far enough to include the appointment of a committee to arrange details of the big objective. Alphonso D. Cahill, a past post commander, and Robert Herron, Republican city councilman, are members of this important committee. Others will be announced from time to time.

Efforts will be made to interest the chamber of commerce in the matter. A large delegation of Ross County Legionnaires will go to the Zanesville state convention next summer to land the state convention for Chillicothe the following year. A state convention of the Legion here will mean at least 1,000 delegates for Chillicothe for three days. An equal number of visitors may be expected.

Offering

Representatives of government bankers of that section.

It is understood that it was the consensus of opinion among the Chicago bankers who conferred with the Federal officials yesterday that any relief to the banks whose capital has been impaired by inability to realize on "open assets" chiefly farmers' obligations, should come from the War Finance Corporation or the Federal Reserve Bank acting through the reserve system.

The Chicago bankers are said to have been unwilling to enter a pool, suggested by Minneapolis and St. Paul banks, who are understood to have offered to put up $1,000,000 if New York and Chicago bankers would raise an equal amount.

Fall

Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, moved today in the senate for immediate action on his resolution to cancel the lease.

"It was a transfer of public property for a private consideration," said Senator Caraway. "I think every one familiar with the record of the investigating committee will concede this."

Without mincing words, Senator Caraway reviewed the testimony, laying particular stress upon what he said was the "admission" of former Interior Secretary Fall that he had taken $100,000 to "leave" from Washington and had used it in enlarging his ranch holdings in New Mexico.

"I know," the senator declared, "that somewhere in connection with that lease, this $100,000 came into the possession of Fall."

Commending Archie Roosevelt for coming before the committee to present information which had come into his possession, Senator Caraway turned his attack on G. D. Wahlberg, private secretary to Harry F. Sinclair.

"When Roosevelt asked Wahlberg if Fall had been bribed in connection with the lease," Senator Caraway said, "his reply was that bribery is a harsh term, but maybe somebody loaned him money. I know I have in my possession $85,000 in cancelled checks given by Sinclair to the foreman of Fall's ranch."

Repeating Roosevelt's testimony that Wahlberg had told him that he was unhappy and knew that "they will want me to be for them," Senator Caraway said:

"God bless his soul, he lived up to the expectations."

The Arkansas senator characterized as "idiotic" the explanation of Wahlberg that Roosevelt had misunderstood him about the checks, that he had referred to "six or eight cows."

"I wonder how he accounted for having the cows cancelled?" the senator said.

"I know, and there is not a senator on this floor who does not know, that this contract was entered into for a corrupt consideration," continued Caraway, "that it was the buying and selling of public property for a corrupt and private benefit and I do not know how any self-respecting senator can excuse to his constituents the step which he has taken as we attempt our disapproval of this transaction."

Fall And Zeveloff Start On Trip

NEW ORLEANS, January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the Interior Department, and J. W. Zeveloff, personal friend and counsel for Harry F. Sinclair, left at 8:30 a. m. for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad for Washington.

Siki and Tut Jackson To Clash In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23.—This evening, just about dusk, there will rumble into the Union Station a train from the Southland, and among the scores of passengers will be a dusky individual. He will not be the emigrant kind, however, and he will not speak English.

Unlike other colored travelers from below the Mason and Dixon line it is doubtful if he has ever sung love songs or belted under a spreading magnolia tree, or picked cotton.

Therefore, having run the puzzle far enough, allow us, as it were, to introduce Monsieur Siki, pet of Paris, conqueror of Champion, savage sword swinger of Senegal, habitué of Montmartre, and former Ritz heavyweight champion of the world.

Monsieur is returning from New York, not so much to visit the scenery en route for it is said that he is adverse to traveling. He is being brought to Columbus for a definite purpose. This purpose is one which will have him pitching into Jackson at Fort Hayes, Thursday night on a 12-round decision contest. The crowd stands out as one of the biggest and most attractive Columbus has ever looked forward to in many seasons.

Suggestion Night With Local Exchange Club

Suggestion Night will be observed by members of the Exchange Club at their weekly meeting at the Mary Louise tonight. Each member is requested to submit a suggestion that would help the city and the nation.

Members of the club will be present at the meeting, and will be given the opportunity to present their suggestions.

Garcia, famous petronista, now playing at the Eastland, will give the members of the club a special treat.

SOCIETY

The Philanthropic Class of the First Baptist church held a delightful meeting last evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. H. Stewart.

The meeting was in the nature of a reception for new members and also for the new brides of the class. A corner

table of pink and white was carried out in the decorations of pink and white carnations and crepe paper, with three dolls dressed to represent the three brides, Mrs. Esther Guilkey McFarren, Mrs. Myrtle Stamper and Mrs. Ora Horton.

The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Minnie Nichols, Mrs. Ruby Cople, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, Misses Maude Tipton, Zelma Hobbs, Ruby Hobbs, Marie Dixon, Martha Lovejoy, Ora Horton and Sue Cathlam.

The business meeting was in charge of Mrs. Leola Wood, the second vice-president, and later the following program was presented:

Duet—Miss Marie Graham and Miss Stella Rowe.
Reading—James Dawson.
Vocal Solo—Miss Mabel Pullen.
Reading—Mrs. H. Stewart Tills.
During the evening the three brides were presented with testimonials.

Those present included the Misses Maude Tipton, Mary Erwin, Marie Dixon, Helen Jones, Thelma Hopkins, Clara Fields, Edith Chambers, Imogene Wood, Bernice Holmes, Thelma Coyle, Stella Rowe, Marie Graham, Marjorie Tills, Ruby Hobbs, Mildred Stamper, Ella Bradbury, Maxine Keyser, Zelma Hobbs, Dorothy Lyles, Irene Messer, Editha Woten, Mrs. W. Ironton Hi Getting Ready For P. H. S.

IRONTON, O., Jan. 23.—Portsmouth High is to be the opposition on the home ground of the P. H. S. Tigers next Friday evening and on Saturday night they take on the Catlettsburg Wildcats, while the Tigermates are tackling the Portsmouth fair ones and on Saturday evening meeting the lasses who represent Catlettsburg on the home ground.

Reports coming from Portsmouth say that the P. H. S. quintet is the biggest and fastest floor combination that that school has ever turned out and they hope to ride right into the southeastern Athens, Coach Davies, expects them to be considerably and is going to find it necessary to give his Tigers the most intensive training they have ever had to have them ready to endure the contest that is certain to be one of the most grueling they have ever entered.

The River City girls are also fast and clever and are hoping to humiliate the Tigermates by superior pass work and tremendous speed. The boys of the Scioto county metropolis have a hard-driving offensive and believe that they are going to have a rather easy time taking the Tigermates into their best to get in shape for the melee for the natural rivalry that exists between the two cities is a reason for extra effort on their part. They will also be accompanied by a large crowd of fans and it is assumed that the I. H. S. gym will have a big gathering on this occasion.

Play Pleases Piketon

PIKETON, Jan. 23.—The Road to the City, played recently at the Piketon opera house, by the Harden Dramatic Club, under the management of Walter V. Scott, drew a large crowd and the cast and management were much pleased with the patronage accorded them by the people of Piketon and vicinity. The people of Piketon and vicinity. The Harden club played up to their reputation and the play presented by them was even better than "Tony, the Courtier" which they played here two years ago. Each member of the cast portrayed the manner and the audience was highly pleased with the play. Taken collectively it would be difficult to find a cast of amateurs that would equal them, and with additional training and experience, some of the cast would be able to "hold their own" in the theatrical class. While we do not pose as a critic, we consider, especially worthy of mention, Leroy Wycoff, in the leading male role as Richard James, a man from the city, Geneva Newman in the leading female role as Jet Sanderson, at the cross roads, and Hartzel Thompson as Bud Johnson, a young farmer, and Hattie Blankman as "Toto Lee," in the leading comic parts. A feature of the play was a specialty between the first and second acts. Leroy Wycoff as Mr. Gallagher and Hartzel Thompson as Mr. Sheen. Mr. Scott entertained between acts with a rather long speech, which pleased the audience. Splendid music was furnished for the occasion by an orchestra from Olney. Immediately after the play, Manager Scott left for New Boston to make arrangements to stage the play there.

GETS LEAVE OF ABSENCE

OMAHA, Neb., January 23.—Fred Dawson, athletic director at the University of Nebraska, and creator of football teams which beat Notre Dame twice in succession, last night was granted a leave of absence as athletic director and his resignation as dean of men accepted. The leave is "until his health improves."

Dawson's contract expires September 1 of this year and he will return at once to near Grand Junction, Colo., where he has been since late in the fall trying to regain his health. The board regents last night voted to renew the present contract and it was predicted that Dawson would sign it.

SEEK REPEAL OF STATUTE AGAINST FIGHT PICTURES

LOUISVILLE, Ky., January 23.—(By the Associated Press)—Having finished with business of the meeting a day ahead of time by dint of diligent application, delegates to the convention here of the National Boxing Association were returning to their homes today. Officers were elected and St. Paul, Minn., was selected for the fall meeting, set for the third Monday in September, prior to final adjournment last night. Richard Burke, of New Orleans, was re-elected president of the association.

The closing session of the meeting was marked by adoption of a resolution urging repeal of a federal statute which prohibits interstate transportation of motion picture films of prize fighters. Allen B. Breen, Cincinnati, who sponsored the resolution said a bill aimed at repeal of the statute was to be introduced in congress.

Face Seed Corn Famine

COLUMBUS, O., January 23.—(By the United Press)—Ohio may face a seed corn famine again early in the spring, according to reports of damage done to the Buckeye corn crop by zero weather. In 1918 Ohio suffered a seed corn famine when thousands of bushels had to be brought here from neighboring states.

Ohio farm crops specialists are making preparations for a state-wide survey to determine the extent of seed corn loss brought about by high rates of interest caused by early frosts. This survey will determine approximately how much seed corn Ohio will need to import from other states.

Mr. Kendrick, 60, John Kendrick, head of the F. J. Kendrick Company, of Taylor street, was being operated today on his back by a medical specialist in his office. He is one of the city's best known citizens and his firm is one of the oldest in Portsmouth.

Secures Right Of Way For Bridle Paths Over the West Side Mills

Announcement was made Wednesday that Dr. Frank Coburn has secured the right paths over the hill near Pond Creek on the West Side and when they are ready for use will offer ideal sport in this line.

"These paths will be so long that a person could ride all day and not get over them,"

Dr. Coburn said today. "We are figuring on making them attractive to lovers of horseback riding and no doubt they will be liberally used. Our plans have not fully matured, but this much is assured that lovers of long rides astride a well bred horse is soon to become a reality in Scioto county."

Highway Financing Problems To Be Taken Up At Road Meet

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23.—Word was received in this city today that a meeting of the trustees of the Ohio Good Roads Federation will be held in Columbus, following a luncheon, Friday afternoon. Among the trustees is Mark W. Selby of the Selby Shoe Company, Portsmouth. Several solutions of the highway financing problem which has become one of the most important in the state, have been made to the federation and will be considered at Friday's meeting. One suggestion is the appropriation of sufficient funds from the general revenues of the state to meet federal road ap-

Flu And Pneumonia Caused Increased Death Rate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Influenza and pneumonia caused an increase in the death rate of the country for 1922, fatalities from those diseases having jumped from 99,815 per 100,000 of population in 1921, to 133.5 in 1922. The death rate from all causes was placed in census bureau figures published today at 11.8 per 1,000 population in 1922, as compared with 11.6 in 1921. The compilation, covering the registration area of the United States which comprises 93 per cent of the country's population, listed 1,101,803 deaths in the area, as compared with 1,032,000 in 1921.

Community Chest Bulletin

Co-ordinating social welfare is the job which the Community Chest has taken over, and in that service we are dedicating ourselves in spirit and in truth. This organization purposes to administer the funds annually contributed by the public for the public good. The Community Chest being the parent agency of the Community Chest, it is our duty to know the conditions and the needs of the community, and to build upon that permanent foundation. This devotion to service is constructive and if persistent, will elevate the standards of the community. We want everyone to join in this great movement and aid in bettering the living conditions of all around us. We are certain that you will find methods that will better the health of the family and the individual of the community and that the improvement will be lasting and permanent. We want our citizens, all of them, to continue sheltering the homeless, care for the sick, assist the crippled, comfort for the weary and restore the wandering to the path of righteousness. We must do this by constructive means and in a way that the constantly increasing number will be reduced, materially. We must help the unfortunate find a course through which he may be of help to himself, we must improve housing conditions, that there will be less sickness; we shall, as a duty protect mothers and children. We cannot permit delinquency, cruelty or social failure and expect an advanced standard of citizenship because the former closes the way by which the latter is made possible. We must bring to the public the opportunity for this service, and clear up doubt in our minds that there are responsibilities which bring with them opportunities for service. Co-ordination of efforts will make social service fit into a general plan leading to a purpose positive of results. Through this plan the unorganized agencies working over the years past without this associated activity will be brought to their highest efficiency, through which the entire social situation will be improved to a marked degree. The seven constituent agencies—The Bureau of Community Services, American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Home for Aged Women, Community Chorus, Girl and Boy Scouts include all phases of social service and as indicated by their title, operate in certain zones without conflict or duplication. It is a source of satisfaction to have a part in this movement which has to do with bettering world conditions and we are pleased to know that there are so many that "believe."

There are many whose opportunities for service still await them.

Matches Dangerous, Especially After They Have Been Lighted, Chief Warns

Beware of the elusive match. It is valuable, yet dangerous. So says Fire Chief Robert L. Leonard, commenting on a recent state bulletin setting forth the hazards of fire resulting from carelessness with matches.

Seven hundred million matches are used in the United States each day, or five hundred thousand a minute. Mr. Leonard pointed out.

"There is not one of these flaming boxes that would not develop into a destructive fire if it had a chance. Of this number, 432,000,000 matches are used by smokers each day. Smokers' carelessness costs the United States over $21,000,000 per annum, the statement continued.

The safety kind of match, which is considered the safest match made, the Chief asserted. Safety matches, having no phosphorus on them, are never set on fire by a blow or a crush, but may be ignited only by a long stroke on a smooth surface. They do not light from common heat, which makes them practically useless without the box, and less liable to fire from lying around for children to play with.

"The so-called safety match is not safe, but is less dangerous than other kinds," said the state fire marshal. "Many unknown fires are attributed to mice, rats and matches. It has been demonstrated that rats have been kept in a cage with plenty of matches until the rats were almost starved to death, and not any of the match heads were eaten.

"It is true that matches have been found in nests of mice and rats, and no doubt many a fire has been started either by mice or rats carrying matches to a point near steam pipes or next to paper or cotton rags."

Always Extinguish Fire Chief Leonard concluded his warning with this admonition: "Matches do not think with their heads; you should do the thinking, so keep matches out of the reach of children. Many children under the age of two years have been burned to death by playing with matches. Boys four or five years old often carry matches. When matches are spilled, always pick them up. Never throw away a burning match; see that it is out first.

"Carelessness in handling matches is responsible for thousands of deaths and millions of dollars in property losses each year."

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY TONIGHT

With several state officers present, the members of Onawa Council, Degree of Pochontas will celebrate their first anniversary tonight with a big meeting in their hall Fifth and Chillicothe streets. Great Pochontas Mattie Setfield, and a banquet served. The committee in charge of the evening's program of records, Ella M. Browning, includes Mrs. Katherine Kittrell, Urichsville, are already here to attend the anniversary celebration. Mrs. Eliza Spahr of Cincinnati, another state officer, has been invited. A delegation of members from Mrs. Hazel Grady.

Ohio Towns Visited By Bandits, Believed Same Gang

COLUMBUS, Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—Three central Ohio towns were visited by what may have been the same gang of robbers Tuesday and cash and foot valued at between $2,000 and $5,000 was obtained.

Police at Zanesville, Wheeling, Newark, Columbus, Chillicothe, Springfield, and Dayton, were on the watch today for some clues as to the identity of the robbers. Starting early yesterday the robbers blew the safe of the postoffice at Seidell, Madison county, and escaped with $1,000 in cash and stamps. Three stores and a garage also were robbed at Seidell.

Work at South Solon. The town of South Solon, also in Madison county, eight miles from Seidell, reported the Toledo & Ironton Railroad station and two elevators robbed. Comparatively little loot was obtained there. The Rev. S. B. Reupert, living at South Solon, was held up and robbed of his automobile radiator and tires.

Shortly after 1 o'clock in the afternoon two young white men entered the Bank of Basil, Fairfield county, and after forcing a bank employee and a depositor into a vault, escaped with approximately $1,200 in cash. Basil is about 20 miles southeast of Columbus. Those forced into the bank vault were A. A. Weakley, assistant cashier, and J. M. Weaver, a hardware dealer. Weakley escaped from the vault in time to see the robbers drive away in an automobile, which he said bore a 1923 automobile license numbered 228-756.

New Laborite Ministry Gets Favorable Reception From Press

LONDON, January 23.—The new Laborite ministry certainly has no cause to complain of its reception by the London press, especially in view of the fact that all the papers with one exception strongly opposed the socialist tenets professed by a large majority of the ministerial party. Although there naturally is some sharp and condemnatory criticism, there is a nearly unanimous admission that on the whole, Mr. MacDonald's cabinet is a well-chosen and efficient body. Even the ultra-conservative Morning Post admits "it might easily have been worse."

The Daily Mail, which energetically tried to prevent the installing of a labor government, proposes to "place the construction of MacDonald's words and acts."

The Daily Telegraph, which shared in the vehement objection to the advent of a Laborite administration, says Mr. MacDonald, will receive fair treatment.

The Times said this, on the whole. Mr. MacDonald has chosen his ministry with judgment and urges the Conservatives to keep their promise to "refrain from factional criticism and give the government fair play and a little more than fair play."

The Liberal press is decidedly friendly. "The Daily News says 'experience alone can prove the strength of the new ministry, but on paper it certainly is a promising combination.'"

The Daily Chronicle comments "the Liberal party's duty toward the cabinet is clear—to give it sincere and unaffected support."

Asserts the Westminster Gazette "We may say Mr. MacDonald has brought together a government with more of the authority that comes from experience than seemed possible, and has composed a cabinet in which moderation will probably be the ruling temper."

Here On Business. John L. Wilson of Huntington is in Portsmouth on business.

To Sell Equipment. Trustees Scholl, Straus and Scott of the Loyal Order of Moose have been empowered to sell all the lodge's equipment before moving to their new hall in the floor building, Gallia and Gay streets.

Secure License. Glenn Snyder, aged 21, and Miss Emma Riddlebarger, aged 21, who gave Portsmouth as their home, secured a marriage license in Greenup, several days ago.

Will Honor Landis

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Baseball Commissioner Landis will be the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the chapter of the baseball writers' association next Sunday night. Prominent figures in the official life of the game, old-time players, managers and present day stars will be among those present.

Other guests will include President Heydler of the National League, John K. Tener, former governor of Pennsylvania, and former president of the National League, John M. Ward, Amos Rusie and Dan Brouthers, great players of another day.

DINES SHOT BECAUSE HE FURNISHED MABEL LIQUOR, SAYS GREER

LOS ANGELES, CAL., Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—The liquor question trickled into the Greer-Dines shooting case today to supply a motive for the wounding of Courtland S. Dines, Denver oil man, at the hands of Horace A. Greer, chauffeur for Mabel Normand, film actress, New Year's night. Two policemen from the witness stand described Greer's visit to the police station to report the shooting. Officer Dine said that Greer declared he shot Dines after the latter "kissed Mabel" and "hopped up." Asked whether he meant narcotics or liquor, Greer, the policeman said, replied: "Liquor, I guess. Detective Lieutenant L. G. Ammon testified that Greer said: 'The dirty rat has kept her drunk.'"

Ohio Sheriff's Widow May Be Offered Job

BUCYRUS, O., Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—Mrs. Frankie Freese, widow of Sheriff Ira P. Freese of Crawford county, who was killed several days ago when his automobile was struck by a train, may be offered the post of her husband by the county commissioners. It was said here today. The post of major of the jail may be tendered to present plans. J. E. Myers, deputy sheriff, will be asked to remain.

Renewal Of Existing Wage

Agreement Is Sought By Miners

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—Renewal of the existing miners' wage contract with the operators for a term of four years, was the proposition placed before delegates at the 20th annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America at its opening session today.

Following his report, President John L. Lewis omitted any mention of an increase, but declared for a "wage agreement for a term of years."

"Without a strike or a suspension of production," he said, "this would be of constructive help in restoring stability to the industry and would be a boon to the coal country."

The announcement, according to some of President Lewis' advisers, indicates that an effort will be made to close a contract for a term of four years or more instead of from year to year as at present. The operators have already been advised, it was said, and have declared their opposition to a contract obligating them for four years, or even three years. A majority of them, it is believed, would consent to a renewal for two years and many are for nothing more than a contract for a year. It is pointed out that a two year contract is the longest ever sought here before.

FACTIONS BATTLE, BUT CHURCH MOVES ON, ASSERT EPISCOPAL BISHOPS AT CONVENTION

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23.—Modernists and fundamentalists may continue to battle, but the church moves forward, in the opinion of Bishop Charles E. Fiske of Central New York, and W. A. Leonard and Frank Du Mont of Ohio, who opened the 46th annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Ohio today.

Bishop Fiske, in an address at a banquet, criticized both fundamentalists and modernists. "The trouble with the so-called fundamentalists," he said, "is that they take their Christianity with them when they leave the church. They are right in believing for the faith. They are wrong in thinking that the rejection of certain theories about the Bible or about the atonement or the way of salvation means the rejection of Christianity."

"On the other hand, there are modernists who are not content with seeking to restore the truths of Christianity in terms of modern thought. They explain the faith in such a way as to explain it away."

Would End Controversies

The foundation of the controversy, Bishop Leonard suggested, may rest in the presence of "so many characters and critics in the church," pleading that all controversies be avoided. Bishop Leonard added:

"Let us see if we can be wiser than some of our brethren and not talk too easily and express ourselves too freely. Let us hold steadily to the simple faith which we have inherited and which has been transmitted through these many generations."

NINE YEARS OF STEALING STARTS WITH $100 TO PAY TAXES, SAYS BANK CLERK

TOLEDO, Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—Harry L. Burbank, 31, chief clerk of Commercial Guardian Trust & Savings Bank of Toledo, was arrested today on a charge of embezzlement. It is alleged he embezzled $17,000 from the bank over a period of nine years. He said to have made a signed confession to police following his arrest.

With a wife and four children, ranging in age from three to 15 years, Burbank has been getting $200 a month from the bank. Burbank said that nine years ago he was short of money with taxes due, he made out a cash collection for about $100 and credited to his account, being employed in the collection department of the bank at that time.

Repeats Transaction

At various times, according to his alleged statement, he took sums ranging from $100 to $200 to help pay taxes, doctor bills and to make payments on a home which he had purchased.

During the seven years he worked as collection clerk, his statement was to the effect that he had taken about $11,000 and since being made chief clerk, with charge of the entire second floor office of the bank, he had secured $6,700.

Burbank told police that he made payments of $8,500 on his home and that there was still owing about that much. Officials of the bank said the loss of the money would not affect the bank in any way, as Burbank was bonded by a guaranty company.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE NOT TO GIVE WHITE PREFERENCE OVER ANY OTHER CANDIDATE

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—Should James A. White, retiring representative of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, become a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, the Anti-Saloon League will not discriminate in his favor as against any other candidate "who is known to be in sympathy with the prohibition law and its enforcement," according to a statement which will appear in this week's edition of the American Issue, the official organ of the Anti-Saloon League.

"The American Issue does not know at this time if Mr. White will be a candidate," the statement will say. "So far as the Anti-Saloon League is concerned, if Mr. White is a candidate for

The gubernatorial nomination, he stands on exactly the same footing with Congressman Cable, Senator Burke, Attorney General Cramble, Roscoe McCulloch, and any other well known dry men who are prospective candidates.

If Mr. White is a candidate and should receive the Republican nomination, the Ohio Anti-Saloon League will have no choice between him and Governor Donahay unless one or the other should change his views on dry enforcement. So far as the Anti-Saloon League is concerned, it makes no difference what candidate for governor is nominated and elected, if he stands for the law of the Anti-Saloon League and it will be strictly adhered to in Ohio square for law enforcement. Attempting To Persuade Burton To Withdraw

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(Special to Times.)—Assisted by leading Coolidge supporters in Ohio, Administration leaders here are making tactful effort to persuade Representative Theodore E. Burton of Cleveland to withdraw as candidate for delegate-at-large to Republican National convention and leave the "Big Seven" originally picked from the White House to carry the Coolidge banner into Ohio presidential primaries.

Burton's withdrawal, it has been feared, is to make way for Charles L. Knight, Akron publisher, who is being urged upon as entitled to place among Ohio's seven delegates-at-large to convention because of his decision to support Coolidge.

Burton was visited in turn today by Carmi Thompson, Senators Willis and Fess, Hoke Donahay, Ohio manager for Coolidge, and Walter J. Brown of Toledo, all of whom urged him to withdraw from race for delegate-at-large. Later Frank W. Stearns, of Boston, the President's confidential adviser, called on him, presumably to make same request, afterward Burton went to the White House for dinner with President Coolidge, but en route there said he had not yet reached decision to withdraw.

The "Big Seven" Seven candidates for delegate-at-large now on state approved at White House are: Senators Willis and Fess; Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty; William Cooper Proctor, of Cincinnati; Charles L. Knight, of Akron; Mrs. Davis Tod, of Youngstown; and John T. Battelle, of Columbus. Prior to 1920, a presidential candidate selected not only delegates at large but district delegates as well to carry his name into primaries, but it is not certain this precedent will be observed in present campaign.

If it is not observed, Former Governor Davis may become candidate for delegate at large, supporting Coolidge. Burton is expected to withdraw as candidate and has been assured administration support for "second choice" for presidential nomination, under requirement of state primary law, in event he desires it. It is not expected here that he will accept this honor, as he told the Republican National committee here in bidding for National convention for Cleveland that Ohio would present no presidential candidate this year.

Chief Witness Against Anderson Denounced As Traitor, Blackmailer

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—O. Bessall Phillips, chief prosecution witness in the forgery trial of William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, today was characterized by former Governor Charles S. Whitman, principal defense counsel, as a traitor to his country, a blackmailer and extortionist.

The attack delivered in a barrage of alternate questions and accusations, caused a sensation in the courtroom, crowded to the doors for the second day of the trial. In the course of his denunciation, the former governor accused the star witness of having attempted to "sell out" the league head to a half score interests identified with the forces opposing prohibition.

Mentions Prominent People

Conspicuous among those mentioned as having been approached by Phillips for money in return for his promise to "deliver" Anderson, were the Rockefellers, father and son; Henry J. Kaltenbach, an official of the Fleischmann Brewing interests and of the National Brewers Association; a number of New York newspapers; Col. Jacob Ruppert, a brewer and owner of the New York Yankees; and Raymond W. Gillette, chief counsel for the New York division of the association against the prohibition amendment. It was to the latter, Whitman charged, that Phillips, who said he now was a fund solicitor for the Young Men's Christian Association, offered to "deliver" Anderson for $25,000.

The name of J. P. Morgan & Company was mentioned by Whitman in connection with his accusation that Phillips had, in 1916, been associated with several men who had purchased from an employee in the Morgan offices information relative to munition purchases by the allies and had thereafter sold the secrets to American munition interests.

"Did you not, in addition to abandoning your wife and six children, attempt to sell out your country?" the former governor thundered.

Admits "Business Relations"

The witness stammered, hesitated, then replied in the negative. Pressed by the attorney, he admitted having had business relations with some of the men later identified as having been concerned in the sale of munition secrets, but pleaded that he knew nothing of their activities.

Phillips, the day's third witness, told under questioning of Assistant District Attorney Pecora, of his employment by Anderson as a league fund solicitor in May, 1917.

"I told Anderson I would work on a ten per cent commission basis," Phillips testified, "but he said he would have me sign a contract giving me a salary of 20 per cent of the first $25,000 I collected, with ten per cent of every additional sum. Anderson told me he wanted to enter into this agreement to fool the Rockefellers, who had been told any league collector would be on a salary basis and not a commission arrangement."

Demanding Split, He Says

"Later Anderson said to me: 'I get $10,000 a year, and I won't let anybody in this organization get any more than I do; when your commissions come to more than that amount, you'll have to split with me fifty-fifty.' I agreed, because I had to in order to hold my job."

Phillips then related that the first commission split occurred in 1919, when he gave Anderson approximately $1,500. In 1920, however, his commissions totaled $18,503, he said. Without his knowledge, he explained, Anderson's and his (Anderson's) share of the commissions were paid to him in checks drawn to himself by the league's assistant treasurer against Phillips' salary account.

"In March, 1921," he continued, "I received an office notice that the government internal revenue department had been notified that my income for the previous tax year, 1920, had been $18,503. I protested to William M. Potter, then head bookkeeper, that I had received only a little more than $14,000, more than $4,000 having gone to Anderson on split commissions. He said he would see about it."

Charged As Expenses

Phillips said Potter discussed the matter with Anderson and that Anderson directed the bookkeeper to transfer on the books $4,400 from Phillips' salary account to the league's hotel and traveling expense account. A recent statement was made out for the government, he said, and he paid income tax only on the sums he had actually received.

Pecora introduced into evidence an order signed by Anderson, directing Potter to make the transfer of the $4,400 item on the league's books.

Employee of Veterans' Bureau Found Guilty

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—John T. Wilcox, former employee of the United States Veterans' Bureau here, was found guilty in the United States District Court today of conspiracy to convert government checks to his own use. Agents of the department of justice alleged that Wilcox cashed bureau checks made out in favor of William Ivy of Lexington, Ky., O. L. Buchard of Mantou, Ohio, and Walter Jones, of Kokomo, Indiana.

Wilcox's attorney filed a petition for a new trial.

Church Interest In International As Well As Local Matters Urged

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—The relation of the church to the broadest of international problems and its duty as well within the narrow confines of a community, both were discussed today at opening sessions of the Ohio Pastors' conference here. Religion had a place in both fields, speakers told several hundred pastors gathered here to discuss their problems.

"Church people in general, and ministers in particular were exhorted by Charles H. Livermore, secretary of the world council league and the league of nations union, to throw their influence behind entrance of the United States into the world court. Washington statemen, he said, would consent to membership, if people make known their desire for it."

Establishment of community churches where all might worship regardless of creed and the use of "preventative evangelism" to keep community environment clean were urged by other speakers. Community church was suggested by Dr. James M. Mullan, of the social service commission of the Reformed church, while Dr. Alvin Taylor, of the same commission of the Disciples of Christ, presented the "preventative evangelism" idea with the declaration that no matter what the teaching of a child, environment would have its effect.

Pastors were urged to treat their church problems scientifically by Prof. J. M. Artman of the University of Chicago. Pastors must "get out of the rut," he said, and Sunday Schools must do the same or be supplanted by the week day religious classes which are now gaining in number.

To Clean Up Movies

Exhortation of the pressure of a "fully awakened public conscience" was urged by Dr. Taylor, as the most efficient method of "keeping the movies clean." He expressed doubt that the industry ever could be standardized fully "by legal methods alone."

The literary field was cited by Dr. Taylor as an example proving that "not much censorship is required when the public conscience is fully aroused and expressed." He declared "censorship would help" but condemnation of the public when unworthy pictures were shown and full co-operation with and support of the owner of a moving picture house who tried to do right probably would have more thorough results.

HOPPE TAKES LEAD

CHICAGO, January 23.—Willie Hoppe, of New York, has a fine chance to retain his world's title in 15.2 ball-pool tonight when, resuming play in the final 500-point block of his 1,500-point match with Young Jake Schaefer, he will find the balls in the excellent scoring position at the head of the table to add to his lead of 1,600 to 730.

Facing a deficit of 81 points last night as a result of losing the first block—360 to 500—Hoppe took full advantage of Schaefer's inability to score consistently by pulling together runs of 162 and 172 and taking the block, 631 to 230.

The experts struggled through 21 innings last night, Hoppe averaging 22-17-21, and Schaefer doing no better than 11-8-21.

Duncan After $12,000

Outfielder Pat Duncan, of the Reds, has submitted his ultimatum to the Cincinnati club owners. He refuses to sign the dotted line unless his contract calls for $12,000. “I am worth every cent of it and will insist on pulling down this sum this season,” Pat charges. He conferred with Gary Herrmann in Cincinnati yesterday, but they failed to reach any agreement.

Charter Is Reopened

Announcement was made at the weekly meeting of the Local Order of Moose Tuesday night that the charter had been reopened and special dispensation granted for a three months' membership campaign, which is now in progress. The Moose will move to their new quarters, Haru Gari hall, Gallia and Gay streets, early in February. After moving, the lodge will meet every other Tuesday night, a schedule of meetings to be arranged after the move is made from Third and Washington streets.

SCIOTOVILLE AND WHEELERSBURG

SCIOTOVILLE.
The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank J. Sikos on Winchester avenue. The meeting was opened by singing "America," which was followed by the Devotionals by Mrs. W. C. T. U. After the business session, the program for Victory Day celebration was given. Two clever readings, "Face to Face" and "The Builder," were given by Mrs. Freeman Chase. Mrs. Julia Willis Leitch sang in her usual charming manner "A Dream of Paradise." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Virginia Overstreet. Three new members were added to the Union. Resolutions were passed commending the present city administration on their law enforcement. At the conclusion of this special hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John Williams, to the following members and guests:
Mrs. Freeman Chase, Mrs. W. C.

Fined; Sent To Jail

VANCEBURG, Ky., January 23.—The Circuit court was again in session here, after a week's recess. After passing over several minor cases the case of Darius Ginn was called and a jury chosen. The prisoner, who was charged with selling whiskey, pleaded guilty and was given a fine of $300 and thirty days in jail.

Still Stiller Going

A quartet of liquor sleuths braved the frigid weather and remained out in the open all of Monday night when they journeyed into the wilds of Pond Creek in quest of dry law violators. The officers captured a 75-gallon capacity still, but the stiller was nowhere about and after waiting several hours in the cold for the owner to appear, the sleuths were forced to content themselves with smashing up the outfit and return home.

THE MODERN SERVITOR

BY those who care to study the history of the American press the approach to conscious public service is seen to be a steady march. Indulging the popular penchant for card-indexing phases, it may be said that the history of newspaper-making is divided roughly into three distinct, if overlapping, periods. In the formative years of the nation the newspaper was a party organ, established and conducted to promote a party's interests. In the middle decades of the last century it was dominantly a personal organ, reflecting the opinions and purposes of brilliant editor-owners. In the twentieth century it is becoming more and more a public organ, devoted to the broadest interests of its immediate community and of the nation.

This developing public spirit on the part of the press is not a matter of accident. Undoubtedly it reflects the spiritual, mental and social growth of the people. But to even greater degree it is the complement of those mighty advances in machinery, in communications and in transportation that have revolutionized life on this continent. Whereas a newspaper of a century ago numbered its readers in hundreds it now numbers them in thousands. The materialist may explain that to attract and hold these large circulations the modern newspaper finds it increasingly necessary to discard personal and group aims for the larger interests of the public. But, more correctly, the psychological diagnostician will assert that the increased responsibility that comes with larger and ever larger circulations, the increased power to help or harm, sobers the judgment as it broadens the vision of the men who make the newspapers of today.

Of course, it is clear enough that not all newspapers have caught the spirit of the times. In the insistent and sometimes justified criticisms of a discriminating public, as well as in the pernicious, indiscriminate attacks of demagogues, lies prima facie evidence that here and there the old motives still remain. But that the newspaper world is keeping pace, with modern thought in law, in medicine, and in the business world generally, is clear to all who give even casual study to current trends. The schools of journalism, upholding ethics as well as utility, schools so lately scoffed at by "practical" news men, are one by-product of this development. The deliberate compilation of newspaper creeds, as that evolved a year ago at the notable meeting of newspaper editors from great cities in the national capital, is another. And more convincing of the new spirit and the new vision are those towering monuments of newspaper success, founded upon secure foundations of public service, amid the very ruins of the yellow journalism of recent decades, that dot the map of newspaperdom from coast to coast as signal towers of hope and confidence for public opinion.

Much has been written in recent years upon the feasibility of exercising greater public supervision over the press, by regulatory or suppressive legislation. But such projects are contradictory of the American spirit and fantastic. The ultimate influence of check and control that must regulate the press is the power of public opinion, of which the press itself is the threshing floor. The surest gauge that this influence will be as decisive as it is wholesome is the fact that those newspapers that are blazing the trail already bear the indisputable stamp of intelligent public approval.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—It has been several years since Richard Canfield, dubbed at police headquarters as a "common gambler," met his death by a fall in the subway. Yet each year a group of men get together to revive his memory. They are not gamblers or sports, but men who have reverence for art.

Canfield, despite his calling, which he said was the second oldest profession, is considered by many as one of America's greatest critics of art. Whistler thought so much of him he painted his portrait which, with his tongue in his cheek, he called "His Reverence."

Canfield ran the gilded gambling hell of New York near the old uptown Delmonico's. He was a suave and polished man of parts. Love of pictures and old furniture were his ruling passions.

His judgment was rarely faulty. He was the first to buy Whistlers when the art world scoffed. He was a worshipper of Velasquez. When he died he had the finest collection of Whistlers anywhere and his prize Sheraton furniture was many times on exhibit.

Canfield was a human contradiction. At the gaming table he was what we know today as hard-boiled. When the rich man's son lost at roulette and gave him a I. O. U. he demanded payment but, when he chance a poor man got past the barriers and lost, his money was returned and he was ordered never to come back again.

Outside of his gambling place he mingled only with men of education. He used to travel to a mid-west city just to talk for an hour or so with a college professor who knew much of art. He was one of the few who knew more than Canfield did and the gambler respected him greatly.

Canfield had two fine homes—one in Madison Avenue and the other across from the St. Regis—that were packed with art treasures. He also loved grand opera, but this was only a mild whim. Fine paintings and artistic furniture were dearest to his heart.

Still another dramatic critic has hearkened to the call of the movies. Charles Darnston, so long critic of the Evening World, has become scenario editor of a New York film company. Darnston was a sort of dean among critics—he and Alan Dale being oldest in point of service, outside of J. Ranken Towse, venerable critic of the Evening Post. Darnston was a critic when William Winter flourished on the Tribune, Laurence Reamer on the Sun and Edward Dithmar on the Times. He will be

There has been a shifting of the literary axis in New York. O. Henry's idea was Greenwich Village as was also Robert W. Chambers. Richard Harding Davis and many others. Now most of the successful writers live uptown above Columbus Circle on Central Park West. Edna Ferber, Fannie Hurst, William Maxwell, Peter B. Kyne and Dana Gatlin are just a few who have settled there.

Mention of Richard Canfield recalls that one of the most noted book collectors in New York—and a rare student—is a fellow who runs an apirary in Jersey. Until he was 22 he could not read or write. He was born in the mountains of Kentucky. He knew bees—perhaps better than almost anyone. His knowledge attracted a visitor to those parts who brought him East. Then his education began. He found it was never too late to learn. Later he went into business for himself and has become rich.

SUPERIORITY

BY BERTON BRALEY THERE'S no one so so humbly That he can't now and then, Call some one else a "dumbell." Among the fellow men, The highbrow waxes sore on The brow of low degree, The moron seems the marion Who's stupider than he. NO lounthead is so stolid That he can't, somewhere, find Somebody's head more solid. Some bird more dull of mind, In country and in city, We all are looking for Somebody we can pity As our inferior. THE gink at whom we chortle, "He's such an ivory dome," Can find some other mortal To call "nobody home." There's no one so so humbly That he has never met Somewhere another dumbell.
